Keck sets another Frosty Run record

Ben Keck set a course record Saturday in the 6K race for the Frosty Fun Run held at the Clover Creek Preserve in Redding.

Keck's time was 18 minutes, 57 seconds. The 27-year-old runner had set a course record Jan. 21 at the 4-mile fun run held at Lema Ranch in Redding.

A total of 116 runners participated in Saturday's 6K run.

Tucker Hoffman, 17, won the 3K race in 10:08. A total of 82 runners ran in the 3K.

The next Frosty Fun Run is the Fleet Feet 2-mile and 5.5-mile set for Saturday morning. For information, go to midniteracing.net.
